

Toyota Industries Group Declaration of Health Commitment

At Toyota Industries, we want every one of our valued employees and their families to live healthy and fulfilling lives, both mentally and physically. The health of our employees and their families not only ensures vitality within the company, but also leads to sustainable corporate growth.

We aim to contribute to making the earth a better place to live, enrich lifestyles, and promote a compassionate society by supporting industrial and social infrastructure around the world through the continuous supply of products and services that anticipate customers' needs. We therefore declare our commitment to creating a company where everyone can be happy and active in their work, while maintaining good mental and physical health, in accordance with the spirit of our corporate creed.

Declaration of Health Commitment

Mental and physical health are the source of all vitality

Koichi Ito, President

April 2024

Koichi Ito, President
Toyota Industries Corporation